

St. Agnes' Primary School

*Armagh Road,
Crumlin,
Dublin 12.*

Phone: 4555127
Fax: 4550602
Email: info@stagnesns.com

Principal: Adrienne Ní Cheallaigh

Vice-Principal: Noreen McEvoy

Enrolment Policy

Updated January 2015.

General Information

The Board of Management of St. Agnes' Primary School have adopted and ratified this policy in accordance with the provisions of the Education Act 1998. The Board trusts that this will clarify any queries or concerns raised by parents in relation to enrolment matters. The Chairperson of the Board of Management, Mr. John Mooney, and the Principal Teacher, Ms. Adrienne Ní Cheallaigh, will, upon request, be happy to clarify any further matters arising from this policy.

Mission Statement

St. Agnes' Primary School seeks to provide a happy Christian environment in which children grow in respect and care for themselves and others. Our school is a place where children are helped to develop their potential. We value and promote active co-operation between pupils, parents, staff, management and the local community. We remain open to new ideas for the development of the school.

School Address:

St. Agnes' Primary School,
Armagh Road,
Crumlin,
Dublin 12,
Ph: 01-4555127

Schedule for A Catholic School

St. Agnes' school is a RC school under the patronage of Archbishop Diarmuid Martin. The school is under the trusteeship of the Religious Sisters of Charity, Caritas House, Donnybrook, Dublin 4.

Total Teachers: Principal + 21
Class Teachers: 13
Support teachers: 6
Home/School/Community Liaison: 1
Early Start – First Class - Co - Ed pupils
Second Class – Sixth Class - Girls only